

Benefits that makes cents

Shore up your financial health with a legal plan

One of the many benefits of a legal plan is versatility. Plan coverages are so diverse that, ultimately, they help with your financial health.

- 67% of employees who enroll in a group legal plan feel financially healthy vs. 52% of those who do not have a legal plan.¹

A legal plan, like medical benefits, offer cost-effective coverage through monthly “subscription” pricing and pooled risk that help keep costs down. The plans are designed to provide access to qualified attorneys, a wide range of coverage options, and easy access to customer support and help online and by phone.

Those who enroll in a legal plan benefit are:

- 36% more likely to be on track to achieve their financial goals¹
- 27% more likely to feel in control of their finances¹

Many financial issues — such as debt collection and tax audits — are also legal issues that can cost you a great deal of money. This financial stress can affect your home life and may have a negative impact on your productivity at work.

With over 18,000 attorneys on your side, MetLife Legal Plans may help you worry less about financial matters in your life.
